

2009 Spring Training Institute Cancelled

The Department of Mental Health Spring Training Institute scheduled for May 27-29, 2009, is being cancelled. The cost of the Institute is covered by registration and exhibitor fees with attendance primarily comprised of providers and staff from DMH and other state agencies. In view of the fact that participation at the 2009 Institute may be impacted by fiscal constraints, Department staff believes it is prudent to cancel at this time.

For those needing continuing education credits, the following organizations offer various trainings throughout the year which may be of interest to those who typically attend the Spring Training Institute:

Missouri Institute of Mental Health www.mimh.edu

Mid-America Addiction Technology Transfer Center
